Please place them on the front table in the Presidents' Room so all can enjoy after the meeting at 8:45.

Healthy is the New Green When Building or Remodeling

In this one-hour interactive roundtable, learn the basics of going beyond Green for healthier building practices. The presentation explores how water, materials, and indoor air quality affect our everyday lives and our homes. You will learn ways to modify your home to make it healthier, plus get information on products you can use to create a healthy living environment. President David Kallie of Dimension Design, Build, Remodel Inc., of Brookfield and other speakers will explain how improved building materials and processes can make your home healthier and eliminate the harmful effects of chemicals that are contained within some building products traditionally used. In 2019, this company was ranked by General Contractor Magazine as one of the top 15 "Kitchen Remodeling Contractors in Milwaukee." The firm's "Step Beyond Green to Healthy" practice is dedicated to helping people design, remodel, and build using healthier building materials and processes. Bring your questions to ask how it could help you when building or remodeling. Questions? Ron Sonntag, 414-788-4907, or ron@rspr.com. Dinner served at 5 pm, so eat while listening.

What An Amazing Organization!

Look through this issue of the Life and you will find tons and tons of fun, interesting, informative and healthful activities, events and trips to enjoy. You will find something fun to do nearly every single day. And what makes all this happen? It's our awesome volunteers who help in hundreds of ways – some visible and some behind the scenes. Every volunteer is contributing to keeping the Club vital and active—one of the best clubs of its kind!

Will you get involved and help, too? Opportunities are endless—from helping at the Welcome Desk at a general meeting, helping an Event Leader run an event, leading an event, being an Ambassador, serving on the Board of Directors, or just stepping in and asking someone if there is something you could do. Opportunities abound whether you have joined the Vagabond family recently or have been a member for a long time. If you can help, have ideas for events, or suggestions for the Club, please reach out to me. My contact information is in the column on the left-hand side of this page.

What an amazing organization, with fantastic members, and awesome volunteers! You are already a fantastic member. Become an awesome volunteer, too! Linda Horn Always seeking another venue, I have arranged the Docksideroom for our Family Style: fried or baked cod, coleslaw, potato salad, rye bread, French fries, potato pancakes w/applesauce; coffee & water.

We will have our own bartender in the Docksideroom, so meet there between 5:30 and 6:30 pm. Dinner will be served at 6:30. 50 people max., so sign up quickly.

Polo Plus a Picnic Fri., July 26 6 pm

Come see what was once known as the Sport of Kings, with horses displaying thrilling bursts of speed and exciting agility. We will have our own reserved picnic tables, but you may want to bring a chair, along with whatever you want to eat, drink, or share. Unlike the polo match in "Pretty Woman," this club has a casual, informal atmosphere, so don't feel obligated to wear your best Kentucky Derby hat or your high heels. (Flats are better for stomping divots anyway.) We also need to carry out what we carry in, and to use Port-a-Potties – no hand-washing facilities, so you might want to bring hand sanitizer/hand wipes. The game will be at the polo grounds on County Road VV, west of Merton and north of Hartland and will be $11 per person. Registration deadline is July 13. Carpool, if you wish, from Goerkes Corners Park & Ride, leaving at 4:45 pm so we can get there and start setting up by 5:30. Questions? Contact Event Leader: JohnPodsedly@gmail.com, 5336 W. Wells St., Milwaukee, 53208. 414-369-4199.

Zermatt: The first thing you will notice about Zermatt is a remarkable lack of noise. Since 1891, the local doctor is the only person allowed to have a car in Zermatt, so everyone else travels by train. The only in-town transportation is by horse-drawn sleighs, electro-taxis and ski buses. Zermatt is a destination resort which keeps most of the weekend skiers away. There are more than 188 miles of marked ski trails with 7,477 ft. of vertical drop. The scope and variety of Zermatt skiing is tremendous with a network of lifts serving trails that rise over 12,000 ft. Three main ski areas offer wide-open slopes for beginners while the more advanced skiers enjoy the challenge of the internationally known Tiefbach, Aeroleid or Momatt. You can ski over the Theodulpass to Cervinia, Italy, for lunch. The Klein Matterhorn cable car which ascends to 12,533 ft. (the highest cable car station in the Alps) has opened new glacier ski runs. Glacier skiing generally means off-piste but Zermatt offers eight controlled, glacial pistes totaling 11 miles of skiing. Non-skiers can enjoy sledding, curling, ice climbing, snowshoeing and winter hiking among other activities. Also, there are a variety of train options, including the famous "Glacier Express" to explore the surrounding area. During the evening, enjoy over 180+ restaurants and 50+ bars.

Barcelona: The second most populous city in Spain, it is the capital of Catalonia and home to more than 1.6 million people. We are staying in the heart of the city, a short walk to the train and subway. We will be near Placa Reial Square, Liceu Opera House, La Manual Alpargatera (handmade espadrilles), Port Vell (waterfront harbor), La Pedrera Case Mila (modernist building designed by Antoni Gaudi), Gothic Quarter (center of the old city), Igesia de San Jaime (St. James Church) and Art Escudellers (huge ceramics and contemporary glass shop). Barcelona is the home of the Sagrada Familia, a large unfinished Roman Catholic church (also designed by Gaudi).

Your trip includes:

In Zermatt: Seven nights lodging at the Hotel Albana Real (www.hotelalbanareal.com)

- Daily breakfast buffet and dinner, Welcome Drink
- Complimentary access to the swimming pool, sauna, steam bath, jacuzzi and gym
- Complimentary Wi-Fi

In Barcelona: Three nights lodging at the Hotel Ramblas (www.royalramblashotel.com)

- Daily breakfast and one group dinner

- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- Complimentary four-hour city sightseeing guided tour
- Included are all taxes, most tips, bus, train and airport transfers
- Pre-trip Party and Post-trip Dinner

Transportation:

The group will fly from Chicago's O'Hare to Zurich on Swiss Air. All airlines rules and schedules are subject to change. There is no charge for skis, poles, boot bag and one suitcase. Your passport must have six months validity beyond the travel dates. There will be a bus from the College Avenue Park & Ride to O'Hare. It is your responsibility to check with your airlines to see if they have a code share with Swiss Air to possibly receive Frequent Flyer miles. We will take the train from the Zurich airport into Zermatt and charter bus back from Zermatt into Zurich on the way to Barcelona.
