I guess the sleepless nights and hours of planning were worth it! About 250 Vagabonds enjoyed our first in-person meeting at the New Berlin Entertainment Center. I cannot tell you how pleased all the board members were by the end of the evening. Thanks to the volunteers who worked at the Welcome Area, Membership desk and Event Sign-up tables. And a “you’re welcome” to the many, many members who expressed positive comments about the entire event.

The board is in the process of reviewing the meeting in detail and will make a few tweaks to further improve the experience for you.

Once again, for planning purposes, we are asking members to sign up for the meeting in advance. To encourage you to do that, we will have another raffle at the end of the general meeting for those who pre-register.

The August meeting will be open to guests for an admission fee of $5. DJ Mike Sherwood, with a library of over 15,000 songs, will provide entertainment for us.

If you were not at the July meeting, you missed this important announcement: Your club gained 73 new members during the past year despite the pandemic.

I hope to see you at one of our many outdoor activities: biking, tennis, golf, pickleball, walks. There are many other upcoming events as well -- some new, some familiar, some updated. Look for details in this issue of the Life, and be sure to sign up right away, as many events fill up within a few days.

Enjoy the rest of the summer!

Regards, Joyce

For Gmail Users

If you use Gmail, you have the option to separate your incoming emails into categories such as Primary, Social, Promotions and a few others. A Vagabond member reported that emails containing the link to the electronic Life were being sent to the Promotions category, which made them easy to overlook.

If you want to keep the inbox categories and make sure that all Vagabond emails go to your Primary category, do the following:

- 1 Open Gmail.
- 2 Check the box next to an email from the Vagabonds.
- 3 Click MORE near the top of the screen. (The icon that looks like 3 dots stacked on top of each other. It is at the far right of the icons.)
- 4 Click Filter messages like these. At the top, you will see the Vagabond Ski & Social Club email address.
- 5 Click Create Filter at the bottom of the screen.
- 6 Click Categorize As, then click the down arrow next to it and select Primary.
- 7 Click Create filter.

Future Vagabond emails will then go to your Primary category.
